BANK OF INDIA
SINGAPORE BRANCH
CURRENT ACCOUNT RULES

1. An applicant for current account shall complete and submit to the Bank all the forms required by the Bank.
2. The opening and continuation of an account with the Bank is subject to the Bank's approval/discretion.
3. No account is opened for a sum of less than SGD2000 or USD1000 unless the Bank specifically permits otherwise.
4. An account may be in the name of one person or in the names of two or more persons; arrangements can be made for one or more persons to operate upon the account and the balance to be paid to the survivors or survivor. The mode of operation of a joint account after it is opened can only be altered with the consent of ALL the joint account holders. The Bank is not bound to act on the instructions of one or some only of the joint account holders regarding such alteration.
5. In the event of death of a sole account holder or of the surviving or of the last surviving account holder, the amount payable in the account of such deceased account holder shall be paid to the legal representative of such sole account holder or the surviving or the last surviving account holder, as the case may be. The legal representative shall mean either the executor or the administrator who has obtained probate or letters of administration as the case may be.
6. Unless the Bank permits otherwise, all payments to the credit of an account with the Bank shall be accompanied by a Paying-in slip which shall be completed in accordance with instructions given by the Bank. Customers may obtain the books of Paying-in forms on application. The receipt of payment is valid only when the figures endorsed by the Bank are identical with the total amount described in the Paying-in form. Any material alteration of this receipt will invalidate it unless it bears the full signature of the relevant Bank Officer. The customer is required to see that this is done before leaving the premises of the Bank.
7. Cheques may not be drawn on the Bank except on the forms supplied and registered for each account. The conditions printed on the cheque book cover are to be strictly observed.
8. Applications for cheque forms must be made personally or on the printed forms. Request for delivery of cheque forms to third party, needs to be accompanied by authority letter in favour of Person to whom delivery is to be made.
9. The Bank may refuse to honour cheques on which, in the opinion of the Officer dealing with the cheque, the signature differs from the specimen supplied to the Bank and/or the cheque is not signed as per operational instructions. The Bank shall be entitled to refuse to pay over the counter cheques in which the word "bearer" has been cancelled.
10. All alternations made in the writing of a cheque must be authenticated by the drawer's full signature as supplied to the Bank, otherwise the Bank may dishonour it.
 - a) In view of Cheque Truncation System (CTS), in vogue in Singapore, cheques deposited in by the customers and which have been dishonoured, the Bank will give Image Return Document (IRD) instead of original cheque deposited by the customer, via messenger or post to the customer at the last address registered with the bank at the customers' own risk and expenses. The IRD is a legal document covered under the Singapore Bills of Exchange Act.
 - b) The Bank shall impose an additional retrieval fee, should the customer want the original returned cheque or any of the presented cheque back, because the bank has to retrieve the same from Warehouse meant for such clearing cheques. Such claims should be made within one year from the date of first presentation of the cheque, because of the fact that the Warehouse would destroy the clearing cheques of the bank after one year.
12. The amount of a cheque must be stated both in words and figures unless the amount is franked by a machine.
13. Cheques must be drawn in such a way as to prevent alteration or addition after issue. The Bank will not unfairly rely on its contractual rights to hold the customer completely responsible for liabilities incurred on forged cheques if the customer has established that the customer has not by his/her acts or omissions (directly or indirectly) caused or contributed to the occurrence of liabilities.
14. In the case of an account in the names of two or more persons, the full title of the account should appear on the cheques drawn on the account. A rubber stamp should be used for this purpose, such stamp of the full title of the account to be in addition to the signature or signatures notified to the Bank.
15. The Bank will record any other countermanding payment of cheque only after a letter duly signed by the customer has been received.
16. The Bank may accept "DIRECT MARK" from presenting Bank and in such case, the customer's account shall be debited immediately with the amount of the cheque so marked.
17. The Bank may debit the customer's account with any amount owing to the Bank at any time by giving two (2) days notice.
18. Outport cheques may be received for collection but the proceeds will not be credited until after receipt of payment by the Bank. Local cheques are credited to customers' accounts when paid in but except by special arrangement, may not be drawn against until the proceeds have been received by the Bank.
19. Cheques must not be issued before the necessary funds have been credited to the relative account, If cheques be presented when there are insufficient funds to meet them, payment will be refused and the cheques returned. The Bank may summarily close the account if the customer repeatedly disregards these instructions.

One copy of this rules is required to be signed and returned to Bank along with Account Opening Forms.

20. No interest will be paid on balances in current accounts.
21. When the Bank accepts or incurs liability for or at the request of a customer, any funds or securities and other valuables deposited with the Bank belonging to the customer and in the hands of the Bank automatically become security to the Bank; and the Bank shall have the right to retain such funds or securities or any part thereof and even dishonour the customer cheques until the liability is settled.
22. The customer will indemnify the Bank, as collecting banker, from any loss which the Bank may incur by reason of its relying upon any endorsements, discharge or discharges on any cheque, bill, note, draft dividend warrant or other instruments presented by the customer for collection; and in all such cases such reliance by the Bank shall be deemed to have been given at the customer's express request in every case.
23. The Bank reserves the right to impose a service charge on all accounts according to the Rules of the Association of Banks in Singapore or any other relevant body. The charges will be notified displayed in branch premises.
24. Accounts must not be overdrawn unless under arrangement with the Manager or other senior Officer at the Branch. In case temporary overdraft allowed at the discretion of the Bank, interest on daily debit balances will be calculated and charged monthly at the rate Prime +3.5% P.A. or at the rate prescribed by the Bank from time to time and minimum interest will be S$25.00 per application.
25. The Bank may close any customer's account by notice, and shall not be bound to disclose any reason therefore. In addition the Bank may review the customer's account at any time at the Bank's discretion.
26. Upon the closing of any account either by the customer or by the Bank a) All cheque forms previously issued to the customer and not used shall become the property of the Bank and the customer shall forthwith deliver the same to the Bank. b) The remaining balances in the account closed are paid to customers in accordance with customers' instructions. Cash payment upon closure of account shall be made to account holder only.
27. Unless there is no transaction during the month, a statement of the customers' account will be rendered once a month. Customers are requested (1) to examine all entries in the statement of account; (2) to report at once to the Bank any error found therein; and (3) to return the confirmation slip if any duly signed. If the customer does not within fourteen (14) days after receipt of the statement of account object to any entry therein, the entries made in the statement of account will be deemed to have been accepted as correct except for any manifest error.
28. Although entries may have been made to the credit of the account, should such credits be made of cheques which have to be collected, the amount they represent is not available for drawing until the proceeds have been received by the Bank.
29. For audit purposes, a periodic statement of balance as on a certain day as decided by the Bank may be sent to all customers. Customers are requested to co-operate with the Bank by returning the confirmation slip duly signed. Without prejudice to rule 27 above, in the absence of any objection to the statement within fourteen (14) days after its receipts by the customer, the account shall be deemed to have been confirmed as correct except for any manifest error.
30. Customers are requested to notify the Bank as early as possible of any change of relevant records such as change of authorised signature, change of partners (for partnership accounts), change of Directors or Secretary and also change in Articles of Association (for company accounts) and until such notice the Bank is entitled to reply on the existing instructions of the customers.
31. Customers shall notify the Bank of any change of address. All communications sent by post or left at the last address notified to the Bank shall be deemed to have been delivered to the customer to whom it is addressed at the time when the notice is left at such address or would in the ordinary course be delivered.
32. Current account depositors are required to pay the service charges, as applicable and notified by the bank from time to time.
33. Current account holders are required to pay the following charges at the time of closure of account:

(i) Within one year of opening	SGD 50 / USD 40
(ii) After one year	SGD 35 / USD 25
34. Deposit Insurance Scheme:
Singapore dollar deposits of non-bank depositors are insured by the Singapore Deposit Insurance Corporation, for up to S$50,000 in aggregate per depositor per Scheme member by law.
Foreign Currency Deposits, dual currency investments, structured deposits and other investment products are not insured.
35. The Bank reserves the right from time to time and without notice to make such further rules and regulations for the conduct of its business and such changes in the rules set out above as it may in its discretion deem necessary if desirable. The charges will be notified/displayed in branch premises.
